A LETTER FROM OUR PRESIDENT

To My Undergraduate Brothers, Parents, Alumni and Friends of Phi Kappa Psi:

As your President, I wake up each day asking myself how can we inspire and use all of the resources around us to impact our brotherhood in a meaningful way. Over 50% of these fine young men come from single parent families, see their father every other week (or maybe don't have a father figure at all) and seek a home away from home. Our values-based organization and its mission are needed more so now than ever.

Phi Kappa Psi and its members are tested daily by society, technology, and unfortunately, the consequences of those choices are far greater than I remember as a student 35 years ago. My son, Ford, a brother at CA Gamma is one of thousands of young men who navigate the reality of making positive choices every day, but then again, many of us faced the same challenges during our undergraduate days. So what has changed and how do we adjust as an organization and its membership?

Our chapters and Universities are no doubt on a fast-track to compliance and even overreach. Having self-disciplined, self-governed chapters of young men are simply not enough to sustain the values of our Creed: they remain at great risk without the re-emergence of additional alumni leadership at each and every chapter.

We have an environment that combines the offspring of the flower child with the children of Animal House. In 2015, if left unchecked, we have a less accountable and volatile culture that moves swiftly and judges immediately. Our effort must increase to remain relevant and project the values of Phi Kappa Psi. We assessed our model of how we manage chapters and grow better gentlemen; we have changed radically our attitude, size, and content with our new staff at HQ. Universities, however, will still rely on punishment vs. proactive education and mentoring. If underfunded, understaffed and untrained, the answer is punishment. To be excellent, I need your heart and spirit to engage now with your nearest or local chapter.

Phi Kappa Psi needs you, America needs you, and the men and women on campus need you to lead by example. Fraternities are not just buildings or houses or bank accounts: they are volunteers and friends who become families and networks invaluable to all. Without trained and broad alumni involvement, they become social clubs or a co-op of revenue for events.

My fountain of youth is recharged by staying engaged with undergraduates wherever I travel. I am so sincerely grateful for this opportunity to serve and be our President.

Simply ask yourself: who are my closest college friends? What has Phi Psi given me over the years? If I don't have money to invest in the Fraternity, can I offer time, goods or services, and maybe reconnect? What are your lessons in life to pass on to the next generation(s) of brothers? What would have been useful to know at the age of 18-22? As an alumnus, can you provide some of that guidance?

Is our motto "A Tradition of Service and Excellence"? Or are we allowing too few of our stellar mentors and advisors to burn out because we lack the manpower to replace them? We need a broader range of all ages and backgrounds to help our chapters.

In recent months, several staff members and officers have visited and researched some of our peer organizations ranked as some of the best fraternities in the nation to learn from their best practices. As a result, we are now well on the way to a better organized, better trained, and better equipped Phi Kappa Psi Headquarters.

What can you do to be a part of our future? Please share your thoughts and of course your time. Our leadership certainly has a vision, a detailed plan, and is well along a new path to success. We must continue down the road of change to be compliant, relevant, and develop a minimum set of standards for all. That is the basis of our Creed.

In general, it is about increasing the frequency and quality time spent on visits to chapters and the conversations we all have with the young men. Whether it's proactive education to minimize risk of their new freedoms or alumni speeches and messages that inspire deep thought into their core values, I and many others have worked hard and spent dollars ensuring Phi Kappa Psi has stable sources of funding to make these enhancements permanently viable.

Our staff and alumni are of equal importance to have a sustainable values-based fraternity.

Universities take a quick simple look at 'support'. If you are kicked off campus, there is a meaningful reason: involvement. For example, Virginia Alpha would not be here today without local support and outstanding staff/volunteer dedication. Yes we lost chapters last year but we plan to return and learn from these experiences.

We are now staffed nearly to capacity but we always welcome new talent and suggestions for growth. SWGP@phikappapsi.com is my email. I will answer your questions or find someone who can. Our staff is on its way to be greater than ever before.

My final thought involves alumni associations and house corporations: you will be my primary focus over the next 8 months. With your help, we will improve how we are planning events locally and nationally. Things will be even better when we arrive to New York City for the #PhiPsiGAC next July!

Let me close by thanking everyone who has answered my call to serve.

Amici...

NEW STRATEGIC GROWTH CONSULTANTS

NICK CHIESA

Hometown: Pittsburgh, PA

Chapter/University: Pennsylvania Alpha – Washington & Jefferson College

Education: B.A. in Political Science/Philosophy

Positions Held: Treasurer, IFC President

Favorite Memory as a Phi Psi: Watching my little brother Xhoni Qyteza get elected as District II Archon.

Why Work in Expansion? I chose to become a consultant because Phi Psi gave me so much as an undergraduate and I wanted an opportunity to give that same gift to more undergraduate men. After hearing James present on the position at the American Leadership Academy, I knew that this was the position for me.

PARKER LABA

Hometown: Sacramento, CA

Chapter/University: California Kappa – University of California, Irvine

Education: B.S. in Business Economics

Positions Held: Corresponding Secretary, Fraternity Educator

Favorite Memory as a Phi Psi: During our Phi Psi 500 event one year, we rented limos to pick up the kids from the Boys & Girls Club. Seeing 80+ kids excitedly jump out of their first limo ever was one of the most inspiring things I have seen.

Why Work in Expansion? I knew that I wanted to work for the national headquarters since I was initiated. It wasn't until I was the Fraternity Educator for my chapter that I knew I wanted to work in expansion.

BENNY ROHLOFF

Hometown: Eagan, Minnesota

Chapter/University: Iowa Beta – Iowa State University

Education: B.S. in Psychology

Positions Held: President, New Member Educator, IFC Vice President of Judicial Affairs

Favorite Memory as a Phi Psi: Attending Iowa Beta's Centennial celebration during my sophomore year.

Why Work in Expansion? The founding fathers of Iowa Beta's re-chartering are just a few years older than me and they always talked about Phi Psi with such reverence. That feeling makes me want to create more opportunities like that for men across the country; many who don't necessarily think that a fraternity is for them.

DILE WILSON

Hometown: Mount Vernon, Indiana

Chapter/University: Indiana Theta – Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis

Education: B.S. in Computer Graphics Technology

Positions Held: Historian, Recording Secretary, Fundraising chairman, Fraternity Education co-chairman

Favorite Memory as a Phi Psi: A founders' day luncheon at Laurel Hall where there was significant snowfall that prevented most of our brothers to attend. Regardless, we had members from IUPUI and Ball State come together to meet and connect with a variety of alumni.

Why Work in Expansion? The scholarship and networking potential with Phi Kappa Psi has been very influential for me and my chapter brothers. Starting and restarting chapters will help grow the legacy of Phi Kappa Psi for the future and this is something that really influenced me as I began applying for this position.

NEW EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP CONSULTANTS

JARED BILLS

Hometown:

Wilburton, Oklahoma

Chapter/University: Oklahoma Alpha – University of Oklahoma

Education: B.A. in Journalism, Broadcasting and Electronic Media

Positions Held: Historian and Recruitment Chair

Favorite Memory as a Phi Psi: For me to pinpoint one memory as my favorite is difficult to do because I have so many, but my favorite ones were when my chapter brothers told me I made a positive difference in their lives. In turn, all of them have made a profound difference in my life and for that I am eternally grateful.

Why Work as a Consultant? I want to be a positive leader and role model for young men that are going through college. They are at a point in their lives in which anything can mold them for better or for worse. Helping them make the right decisions and to keep them motivated after making mistakes is something I feel many people in our society need to become successful. It is important for me to let others know that it is not our problems that define us, but how we react to our problems that bring forth who we really are.

ZACHARY HERGE

Hometown:

Lima, Ohio

Chapter/University: Ohio Eta – University of Toledo

Education: B.A. in Organizational Management and Communications

Positions Held: Vice President, Governing and Scholarship Chair

Favorite Memory as a Phi Psi: Performing for three years with my chapter brothers in Songfest, which is the University of Toledo's second oldest tradition. It was originated by our local chapter over 75 years ago.

Why Work as a Consultant? As an undergraduate, I had the privilege to be a part of a long-term change process within our chapter that transformed the organization from the struggling fraternity of about 20 men that it was to one of the premier personal development and philanthropic organizations on campus. I applied to be a consultant because I wanted to give back to the organization that helped develop me into the man I am today and I believe that my experiences will help chapters at any level across the nation meet their goals and expectations.

JORDAN NABIZADEH

Hometown:

San Diego, California

Chapter/University: Louisiana Gamma – Loyola University, New Orleans

Education: B.A. in Communications and Public Relations

Positions Held: Messenger, Philanthropy Chair

Favorite Memory as a Phi Psi: Going to school in New Orleans was of course an experience in itself. My favorite Phi Psi memories are directly tied with the city itself and participating in our events that related to New Orleans culture.

Why Work as a Consultant? I recognize the benefits of working for the Fraternity, especially as a first job out of college. I also am excited for the opportunity to travel the country, network with undergraduate and alumni brothers, and most importantly, serve the fraternity that I love.

NATHAN WHISMAN

Hometown:

Atlanta, Indiana

Chapter/University: Indiana Gamma – Wabash College

Education: B.A. in History

Positions Held: House Manager and Fraternity Education Chair

Favorite Memory as a Phi Psi: Attending the Grand Arch Council in San Antonio, Texas in 2012 because I was able to meet many different Phi Psis from across the country and make a lot of new friends. GAC was when I realized the magnitude of the National fraternity and what an honor it was for me to be a part of it.

Why Work as a Consultant? I chose to become a consultant to serve the Fraternity and to meet Phi Psis from around the country.

CONNER BOYD

Hometown:

Oregon City, Oregon

Chapter/University: Oregon Beta – Oregon State University

Education: BS Economics, Options in: Law and public policy; Management. Minors: Political Science; Entrepreneurship; Religious Philosophy

Positions held: Scholarship Chairman, Alumni Relations Chairman, Special Events Chairman, Corresponding Secretary

Favorite Memory: My favorite memory would be my farewell chapter at the end of the year. I thought I would be worried about leaving the chapter that I loved so much behind. But that night, hearing all of the undergraduates tell stories about the graduating brothers and the impact that they had on their lives made me realize that my chapter was in safe hands. These younger guys were ready and able to continue to grow and protect the brotherhood that has meant so much to me.

Why consultant? I believe that every brother should stay connected and give back to the Fraternity. We have taken a sacred oath to join this brotherhood for eternity and I intend to remain as involved as I can. The fraternity has given me so much over my time as an undergrad and I wanted to be able to give back however I could.

CHAPTER LEADERSHIP RETREAT
OMAHA 2015

PHI KAPPA PSI

THE 2015 WOODROW WILSON LEADERSHIP SCHOOL STEPPING UP TO THE PLATE

DAY ONE

AS TOLD BY DISTRICT III ARCHON, DUSTIN MEEKS
(BALL STATE '14)

In preparation for the Woodrow Wilson Leadership School, our chapter made business cards featuring our officers, we ordered matching leather padfolios, and everyone met at my house the night before for a planning session and a discussion of our goals for the Leadership School. On the morning of June 17th, we headed from my house to Indianapolis International Airport at dawn for our flight to Omaha. In the terminal, we met up with a brother from the Indiana Gamma chapter (Wabash) and Brothers from Indiana Alpha (DePauw). We all shared a flight that morning and after a brief layover at Chicago O'Hare, we arrived in sunny Omaha, Nebraska.

After about 45 minutes in the airport conference room, we were loaded onto a bus headed for the campus of Creighton University. During the bus ride, our chapter treasurer, Alex, sat next to an alumnus from another chapter and he guided Alex on some best practices for budgeting chapter funds. From the onset of our trip, the National brotherhood was feeding into our chapter with wisdom and insight.

We moved into our residence hall and wandered down the stairs to join the brothers who had already arrived and started enjoying the pool tables, ping-pong, and lounge space made available to us. After a while, everyone crossed campus to the building that houses Creighton's school of business and Dr. Jackson Katz assembled us for a presentation. The presentation focused on our power to stand up in situations where our values, our friends, or innocent people come under attack. Dr. Katz spoke to the fact that each of us allows discrimination to occur when no one steps in to combat it; he charged us with living out our obligation as fraternity men to make the world a better place. This presentation was followed by a small group discussion split amongst the various roles that each attendee played for his chapter.

HE CHARGED US WITH LIVING OUT
OUR OBLIGATION AS FRATERNITY MEN
TO MAKE THE WORLD A BETTER PLACE.

I currently serve Indiana Iota (Ball State) as the Fraternity Educator. I joined my fellow educators for an activity mapping the definitions, goals, and hardships of the fraternity educator's role. Every University environment is different, but our new member orientation program is structured in a way where all of us could train together. No matter the chapter, we all wanted new members who were invested in the chapter and living out our values.

We also wanted our chapter brothers to engage with the new member class more regularly, along with maximizing our efforts in such a critical role for educating new members.

DAY TWO

The second day in Omaha was very productive: it started out with Lori Hart discussing chapter leadership and how to effectively communicate the problems we are facing as leaders with the members of our organization. Dr. Hart shared with us that identifying the problem is usually the hardest part, and called on us to defy the stereotype of fraternity men. The only way we can change the stereotype is by being different and elevating the standard. This presentation was followed (for Fraternity Educators) by an exercise in the MVP sexual assault risk management program, which was created by Dr. Katz as an empowering course for bystanders who don't know how to intervene successfully.

On Thursday evening, all of the brothers were gathered together for the initiation of new brothers into our esteemed brotherhood. We met in Creighton's beautiful St. John's Church, and it was the first time I had witnessed the ritual on such a grand scale. We were 600 men, but in that hour we were one.

DAY THREE

The third morning of WWLS featured a high-energy discussion of how to recruit the best new members for our organization. The lesson that stuck out most for me in this session was the importance of building a friendship with the new students. You can have the greatest chapter ever, but men join our organizations for the people around them because the relationships we will build with one another are so powerful.

My WWLS experience was crowned by being elected as the District III Archon. Brother Brian Kochheiser announced that I had been chosen to serve. I love my brothers, I love this organization, and I now have the opportunity to share that passion for Phi Psi in a meaningful way. I am proud to lead District III, and I am proud of the trust that my brothers have vested in me.

WWLS was a great experience because it made the National brotherhood real for me. The concept of brothers coast to coast united for the purpose of perpetuating our highest ideal isn't just a concept; it lives today and this leadership school was a testament to the power of men working together. Whether it was the baseball diamond, the classroom, or on the podium, the experience I had in Omaha reaffirmed everything that made me want to join Phi Kappa Psi at Ball State University.

“THE ONLY WAY WE CAN CHANGE THE STEREOTYPE IS BY BEING DIFFERENT AND ELEVATING THE STANDARD.”

A NEW WWLS

BY THE NUMBERS (2003-2015)

The Woodrow Wilson Leadership School experienced moderate success in terms of attendance over the past 12 years. In an effort to improve the WWLS experience, we made it a priority to invite 5 members of each chapter and at least one advisor to the program. As you can see from the numbers below, the total number of attendees increased in a significant way.

There were seven different tracks intentionally designed for each of the officers and chairs in attendance. Each track was led by a subject matter expert that actively engaged the students and alumni in necessary conversations about leadership. We combined that leadership training experience with powerful programs delivered by the likes of Dr. Jackson Katz, Dr. Lori Hart, Coach Scott Nady (Cal, Berkeley '10), and Jerry Nelson (UCLA '48). The expansion and development of the WWLS is just the beginning; we will continue to evolve our leadership programming based on the needs of our chapter members and college students today.

Taylor Deer (RIT '08) of PhiredUp Productions works with the recruitment track on best practices

Ethan Heller, W&J '15

"As a rising sophomore, WWLS was my first time experiencing what Phi Kappa Psi has to offer on a truly National level. What I walked away with was both an educational and social experience unlike anything I had previously experienced. My goals moving forward are to take what I have learned this summer and apply this new knowledge not only as an asset for my own individual success, but rather for the success of both my chapter, and subsequently the Fraternity as a whole."

Shane Strauss, VGP,
UCLA Colony '14

"WWLS gave me a glimpse into the expectations of an officer and a brother. I came away humbled and excited to rebuild the historic chapter at UCLA."

Kevin Paternostro, GP, Oregon State '12

"Although we revel in this wondrous accomplishment, my fellow undergraduates and I know that this is not ours alone. This accomplishment has been in the works for many, many years. We would not be the Grand Chapter if it were not for the passion and foresight of our predecessors. We owe a debt of gratitude to the alumni brothers who worked over the past several years to get us to where we are now, as well as the alumni on our Chapter Advisory team and House Corporation who have given countless hours to our chapter. This award not only recognizes our undergraduate members, but indeed all 844 initiated Oregon Beta brothers and the brothers from other chapters who have made this possible."

I am continually inspired by the pure love and passion I see in the brothers of this Fraternity. Though our chapter has faced some hardships over the past years - a brotherhood of only 6 members, a literal house explosion, and a barrage of doubt from Greek Life at OSU - we never accepted defeat and our hard work, determination and brotherhood have brought us to where we are today, receiving the Grand Chapter award."

Adam Goldberg, VGP, Iowa State '13

"Woodrow served as a wonderful opportunity to learn about our National Headquarters, along with being a great platform for exchanging ideas with our fellow brothers from around the country. The presenters bestowed insightful information and while this was my first time attending a National event, it shall not be my last!"

Logan Kleiman Wabash '14

"WWLS gave me the opportunity of a lifetime. I never thought I'd be able to work with brothers from all over the country in such a cohesive environment."

"The Woodrow Wilson Leadership School was an amazing experience that helped shape the way I see my role as Vice President. It was a lot of fun to meet with other vice presidents and discuss what our job is, what we can do to improve and how we can make those improvements. The speakers we had were energetic and inspiring. We were told that their speeches would be recorded and sent to all chapters so that all members will be able to listen to these talks. I think ensuring these talks are not restricted to officers is a great step to ensure that every member feels included in the future of Phi Kappa Psi."

BROTHERS IN PERIL

PHI KAPPA PSI AT CAL, BERKELEY RAISES $11,000 IN 48 HOURS

"The Gill family's home was recently destroyed by the Valley Wildfire. The home was the operating location of the family business used to support their two children, one of whom, Jacob, is attending UC Berkeley. Jacob and his father are both Brothers of the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity, so the Berkeley Chapter of Phi Kappa Psi is doing our part to help them out. Jacob is also very involved on campus, always looking for ways to serve the community. Now let's do our part to help give back."

That was the message delivered by the brothers of Cal, Berkeley on the GoFundMe page for Brother Jacob Gill (Cal '14) after his family lost their home in the recent rash of California Wildfires. Jacob's father is also a Phi Psi; Tim Gill was initiated at California Eta (Cal Poly '81). It is a heartbreaking story that was confronted head-on by the undergraduate membership of the chapter. After learning of this terrible tragedy, the members (including District VI Archon Thomas Zorrilla) went to the popular fundraising platform GoFundMe to start a campaign. That campaign was started on September 14th, 2015.

The goal: raise $10,000 for their brothers in need.

Within 48 hours (and over 100 donations later), the campaign raised well over $11,000.

We asked Jacob about the GoFundMe campaign and how it affected his family. He said, "Before I even knew about how much support my family was actually receiving, my younger brother Connor, who is a 16 year old at Middletown High School, called me and simply said, 'Dude. Phi Psi is awesome.' He then told me that I needed to go online and check out the GoFundMe. I was blown away. Everything felt very surreal. I had previously thought that I understood the extent to which the Fraternity would be a resource and a support system for me, but I think that no one can fully comprehend it until they experience it. My family is absolutely in awe and unconditionally grateful for the support we have received. We received support from not only Actives and Alumni from chapters across the nation, but also from the friends and family of my Brothers. It has been incredibly helpful as well as a force of hope during a dark time for us."

Thomas Zorrilla (Cal, Berkeley '13), who helped organize the campaign, exclaimed, "I believe that the outpouring of support from across the county and world is a truly amazing representation of the strength of our brotherhood. I hope that the love and support from brothers near and far was able to offer much needed comfort for the Gill family, and reassure them that we are all standing by them."

It wasn't just undergraduates who were involved in the campaign. Alumni Brother John Kmentos (Oklahoma '83) left this comment on the campaign page: "...the outpouring of generosity by Phi Psis across the country is amazing. Fraternity is about so much more than epic parties... it's about Brotherly Love. I'm so proud of these guys."

Jamey Gill (who is Jacob's mom/Tim's wife), gave this emotional response to the outpouring of support on the GoFundMe page: "It offers us so much hope that we will be able to start over and end up strong. I cry as I write this. We are truly humbled. How do I extend an appropriate thank you? It seems an impossible task."

The campaign was closed by the chapter on September 22nd, 2015. In just eight days, these young men were able to capitalize on the power of social media and the power of brotherhood to raise a grand total of $16,020 for Jacob and his family. The money will be used to support Jacob's college tuition, room and board. While the family begins re-establishing their life in a new home and continues to run a business, that $16,020 will go a long way to ensuring that Jacob is able to finish his education. Observing this level of support for our brothers in California demonstrates to all of us that true brotherhood extends beyond geographical barriers. Let this be an example to everyone of what support and service looks like in a time of immediate and dire need.

MICHIGAN ALPHA RAISES $150,000 FOR A BROTHER IN NEED

Last July, nineteen-year-old University of Michigan student Taylor Janssen (a member of Michigan Alpha) suffered a break at the C5 vertebrae in his neck while playing volleyball with some friends on Lake Sherwood in Commerce, MI. Once Taylor was stabilized on a board and ferried across in the boat, he was rushed to U of M hospital in an ambulance. The doctors performed emergency surgery to fuse the vertebrae, stabilize the area, and prevent further damage to the spinal cord. He had a team of over 15 health care professionals waiting in the emergency specifically for his arrival. After the accident, he was paralyzed but with full mental capacity.

Those close to Taylor have seen this strength displayed on many occasions. From his father, Mark: "Taylor, who came into this world 3 plus months premature, has always been a fighter. Also, as his mother would say: he is a Janssen and Janssens do not give up." As if this family hasn't dealt with enough, Taylor's mother, Kathy, died last year of a rare form of breast cancer called Triple Negative Adenocarcinoma.

Taylor is a brother who is always willing to help anyone in need. In response to hearing the news of his tragic accident, members of our Michigan Alpha Chapter decided to take it upon themselves to help Taylor any way they could. On the Tuesday following the incident, one of Taylor's fraternity brothers started a GoFundMe campaign with an initial goal of $5,000. They surpassed this goal in just twelve minutes. With the help of all of Taylor's friends and family, (and some caring strangers), the GoFundMe campaign raised an impressive $100,000 dollars in just three days. When asked about the final goal of this support campaign, one of his fraternity brothers responded: "We really hope this is just the beginning. All of us, along with Taylor's family, hope that we can raise awareness to Taylor's story, as well as the many others like it, to ensure he receives the best care possible through his rehabilitation." All proceeds that do not go towards Taylor's rehab and hospital bills will be donated to his mother's memorial foundation, the Kathy A. Janssen Foundation. This foundation is set up in the loving memory of Taylor's mother to provide financial assistance to causes that captivated Kathy during her life. For more information on that cause, search the 'Kathy A Janssen Foundation' on Facebook. The entirety of the funds raised during this campaign will be given to the Janssen family and they will decide how to use the donations in order to best help Taylor.

As members of Phi Kappa Psi, this story should inspire us to continue finding meaningful ways to support one another; even if you're a complete stranger to a cause. Our Creed calls for us to give back whenever possible and the brothers of Michigan Alpha certainly demonstrated that with this story.

FRATERNITY GROWTH WHAT'S ON THE HORIZON?

PHI KAPPA PSI COLONIZATION PROCESS

Phi Kappa Psi prides itself on a very intentional expansion and colonization process. Whether choosing a new school to expand to or extending an invitation to a potential colony member, our staff does its due diligence to ensure long-term success of our Fraternity and its members.

The recruitment and education of colony members is the main duty of the Strategic Growth Consultants deployed on each campus. Our team members are trained prior to arriving to campus in all areas of successful chapter operations. Having one or two professional recruiters on campus for 10-15 weeks allows for the colony to start off on the right foot. Our team members utilize the following methods of recruitment to attract the ideal colony members:

- Sorority referrals
- University Faculty/Staff referrals
- Interest Meetings
- 1-on-1 meetings
- Tabling
- Alumni referrals

The Tony Horton Founders Scholarship

The Tony Horton Founders Scholarship offers scholarship money to undergraduate men who are not currently in a fraternity, that show strong leadership qualities, an inclination to service projects, and have a 3.0 GPA or higher.

There is an application process, which is followed by interviews conducted by the Strategic Growth Team, one Phi Kappa Psi alumnus, and one University faculty/staff member.

We have set a 3.0 minimum GPA for each new member of our colony to ensure that each group is started with a strong focus on academics.

"AND CONSIDER THE IMPACT OF NOT RECRUITING WELL. IF YOU LOWER YOUR STANDARDS THE COMPANY SUFFERS FROM LOW PERFORMANCE, HIGH TURNOVER, AND POOR CUSTOMER SERVICE. THE MOST IMPORTANT THING YOU DO IN HR IS HIRE GREAT PEOPLE – WHICH IS WHY COMPANIES LIKE GOOGLE SPEND 4-5X AS MUCH ON RECRUITING AS TYPICAL LARGE COMPANIES."

FORBES MAGAZINE, WEB. 23 MAY 2013.

Phi Kappa Psi has been invited to join the Greek community at James Madison University in the Fall of 2018.

The Fraternity is also in the process of finalizing a number of other expansions on the schedule over the next 3-5 years. When those are final, we will include them in a press release on our website and in The Shield.

Louisiana Beta at Louisiana-Lafayette had its chartering ceremony the weekend of October 23-25, 2015. Look out for full coverage in the winter Shield.

When Phi Kappa Psi looks at schools that would fit into our strategic growth plan, we consider the following metrics*:

- Freshman Retention Rate
- 4 and 6-year graduation rate
- Loan default rate
- Academic reputation
- Greek population
- Greek Life staff
- Number of fraternities/sororities on-campus
- University mission statement
- Is it a re-chartering?
- Alumni within a one hour drive
- Demographics of the campus
- Admission rate
- IFC, All-Men, and University GPA

If you're interested in re-starting your dormant chapter or attending the Louisiana-Lafayette re-chartering ceremony, please contact James J.G. Perez, Director of Strategic Growth, at jgp@phikappapsi.com for more details.

Recruitment Lunch, a Brotherhood outing to the Golf Course, Founders' Day Lunch, Mom's Day, Boys & Girls Club Carnival Day, and various social events. We were particularly proud to bring back our tradition of Phi Psi 500 to the University of Kansas. This year we took advice some other close chapters for a week-long event. Our Philanthropy Chairmen helped make it possible to raise almost $1500 to donate to the Boys and Girls Club of Lawrence. Toys were also collected in a Toy Drive to donate to a local charity. With this in mind, we are already making plans for next year.

Chapter Update: The Ohio Zeta chapter has had nothing but success as the spring semester came to a close. We were able to initiate four men that we recruited during our informal spring recruitment. This, yet again, has brought our membership to a new high. We can also attribute our successes to the chapter's dedication to academics as we seized number one GPA in the Interfraternity Council. We were also recognized by our Greek community for achieving the highest ranking in the pillars of excellence in both categories of Academic Excellence and Positive Relations. Bowling Green State University is undergoing a Greek housing project that is now halfway complete. One of our main goals this coming year will be finalizing that housing and helping create a chapter house that will remain on the campus for the next century. Founders' Day had a great showing of alumni as our chapter continues to grow and more of those graduated members return.

RISK MANAGEMENT CONCERNS AND CHAPTER CLOSURES

Over the past year, risk management concerns have come to the forefront in the fraternity and sorority industry. One former fraternity executive claimed, "It was by far the worst year I've seen in my 35-year career." The issues have been popping up all over within our chapters, resulting in a significant increase in risk management premiums.

Liability Insurance Cost per Undergrad

By the time this article hits mailboxes, chapters will be paying an additional $30 per person per year for liability insurance. This increase is a direct result of the ramifications that have arisen due to poor risk management practices across the industry; not just Phi Psis. Examples of these types of issues we have seen over the past year include:

- A variety of hazing issues, including mental and physical discomfort, harassment or ridicule, use of alcohol, excessive fatigue, road trips, public stunts, etc.
- Alcohol and Drug issues revolving around:
 - Failure to comply with BYOB or Third Party Vendor Guidelines
 - Alcohol that is purchased through chapter funds
 - Open parties where there is unrestricted access by non-members where alcohol is present
 - Members serving alcohol to minors
 - The possession, sale, or use of illegal drugs on or off chapter premises
 - Chapters that permit, tolerate, encourage or participate in drinking games
- Sexist or sexually abusive behavior on part of members and/or guests, including several instances of sexual assault

Despite many of these problems, Phi Kappa Psi is proud to be a partner with our host campuses. Those partnerships are never more powerful than in situations where risk management issues or violations arise. The Fraternity recognizes the importance of continuing to offer significant resources to educate our chapters. As a result, we hired two new staff members to assist chapters in the educational process:

Director of Standards

James D'Imperio (Purdue '07)

Associate Director of Standards – Chapter Growth

Brian Kochheiser (BGSU '12)

Although we are devoted to helping our chapters who are struggling in these areas, sometimes tough decisions have to be made. This past year, five Phi Kappa Psi chapters became inactive due to a variety of the reasons listed above. That is the most we have ever had in our 163-year history. A history of repeated violations can also play a role in a chapter closure. Those chapters include:

In a continued effort to improve the undergraduate experience, our number one goal is education to promote the safety and well-being of our members and their guests. Chapters can do several things to set themselves up for success:

- Complete the six risk management education programs to secure a 10% discount on your premiums for the following year. At least 85% of your members and 100% of your new members must attend each program.
- Each University provides a variety of on-campus resources to help discuss risk management practices. Contact your University administrators to identify how they can assist your chapter.
- Ensure that your chapter is 100% certified in the Chapter Management Education Certification Program (CMECP). That ensures you are prepared to tackle most risky situations.

MISSOURI BETA CONTINUES ITS SUCCESSFUL ALUMNI REUNIONS

The Brothers of the Missouri Beta Chapter of Phi Kappa Psi (Westminster College) conducted a special reunion this year during the traditional Alumni Weekend, April 24-26. The goal was to celebrate the service to the chapter and community by Brother Bob Epperson Westminster '60. Bob provided leadership to the Missouri Beta Chapter as advisor from the time it became a colony in 1960 until the chapter returned its charter in 1976. The brothers of Missouri Beta, in recognition of his service to the Fraternity and community, established The Bob Epperson / Phi Kappa Psi Scholarship Fund at Westminster College in May 1999.

Twenty-two Brothers made their way campus to participate in the festivities. On Friday evening, brothers gathered for a social, which included remarks from William Parrish, Ph.D., acting historian of the college, who provided the brothers with a brief history of the early years of Phi Kappa Psi on campus.

Saturday featured a traditional chapter meeting, and remarks from school dignitaries like Carolyn Perry, Ph.D. senior vice president and dean of faculty, and Bob Hansen, Ph.D., associate professor of organizational leadership program coordinator. Hansen presented two former winners of the Bob Epperson / Phi Kappa Psi Scholarship Fund. He thanked Brother Epperson for all his years in support of the Missouri Beta Chapter and the college. Hansen defined the traditional role of a leader, as those who give back to the community, as Bob Epperson has done since the early 1960s. Leaders who give back to the community are "heroes" in people's minds.

It is the goal of the Missouri Beta Brothers to continue supporting the school with the Bob Epperson / Phi Kappa Psi Scholarship Fund. This year's Reunion Coordinator Brother Charles Kerr Westminster '68 presented Perry donations by the attendees of $12,475. These amounts added to the fund's capital came to nearly $200,000 for future scholarships. This is the largest scholarship fund among all the fraternities and sororities represented on the Westminster College campus. For the 2016 academic year four students will each receive cash scholarships in the amount of $3,000 each.

The next reunion will be April 2018 celebrating the class of 1968 when it will be their 50th reunion.

PHI PSIS ON SESAME STREET

There are Phi Psi brothers everywhere, even on “Sesame Street!” Brothers Paul H. Rudolph Illinois '89 and David M. Wermus Minnesota '91 have the pleasure of working with one of the most iconic television programs, and brands, in America. Paul is the Music Director for “Sesame Street” and David works as the Production Manager when the show films in Los Angeles. The show primarily shoots in New York, but travels to L.A. for a week each year to film celebrity “Word on the Street” inserts and music videos with popular artists. This is the sixth year brothers Rudolph and Wermus have worked together on the show.

FRANK MANN – A TRUE STORY ABOUT A FATHER’S LOVE

To say that Frank Mann Vanderbilt '60 had an interesting experience celebrating his father’s 75th birthday would be an understatement. George Mann had taken his boys to hunting camp from the time they were six. As they grew older, they learned to share his love of camping, hunting, and the outdoors. A gift that they, in turn, have passed on to their boys. As his 75th birthday drew near George conceived and arranged a very special trip as a present for himself and his sons. Its object, hunting jaguars in Central America, sounded like a dream trip to his sons. However, as often happens, it did not quite turn out as planned. In his book, Jungle Cruise from Hell to Hereafter: A True Story About a Father’s Love, Frank’s first-person account of that miserable ten-day survival experience is filled with graphic details of incompetent guides, airplanes shared with chickens, disgusting food, “tourista” stomach, nights of terror, fierce mosquitoes and ticks, and filthy bodies and clothes—all the elements that made it the unforgettable trip it became. But, as so often happens, this worse-ever experience became in retrospect Frank’s best and most precious memory of his loving father. But the story wasn’t ended when they finally got back home. Fourteen years later a little kitten named Resurrection manages to make George’s last days on earth more significant and moving than his sons could have imagined. The book has been shared with several Tennessee Delta brothers, especially during a reunion of members from that era.

The pinnacle of Colorado hiking and mountain climbing is hiking all of Colorado’s 14’ers, 58 peaks listed at over 14,000 feet (by some accounts the total is listed at 54). To complete his goal, Brother Bob Vance Ohio State '90 was joined by Todd Newton Ohio State '92. Brother Vance’s last peak on the list was Mt. Harvard at 14,420 feet, shown here in this breathtaking shot on top of the summit along w/ his dogs Guinness and Sadie.

Leo W. 'Mac' McIntyre

California Gamma (Cal, Berkeley) '46

Mac McIntyre passed away on December 17, 2014, from complications of lung cancer. His passing was peaceful, with his wife, Gail, at his side. His health had declined dramatically in the past year, but he never gave up, hoping to beat it as he had twice in the past decade. Leo William McIntyre was a fifth generation Californian and was very proud of his ancestry. His Great-Great-Great Grandmother, Maria Antonia Tapia arrived in Monterey in 1776 with the De Anza Expedition. She was 13 years of age and was accompanied by her parents and eight siblings. On May 26, 1776, Maria Antonia Tapia and José Antonio Buelna were married by Father Junipero Serra in the Royal Presidio Chapel. Mac was born in Watsonville, California, to Otto and Catherine McIntyre. His family set high standards for a son who had a brilliant mind and a desire to succeed at whatever he attempted. Mac's wife, Gail, has suggested that she may write "The Book of Mac" to tell the story of the amazing, quirky and even ridiculous things that occupied his time over the years. Rather than rambling on here to chronologically narrate his life, it seems more important to list some achievements and thoughts about him. He graduated from Lincoln High School in San Francisco in 1944. He entered the Marine Corps through the V-12 program and served for two years during World War II and was recalled to Korea for two years in 1950. He graduated from UC Berkeley with a degree in Civil Engineering. Mac was Director of Public Works for the City of Concord for over 20 years and was Director of Public Works for the City of Monterey for 23 years. A Monterey Herald editorial at the time of his retirement in 1989, was entitled "Good Job, Mac". Following his retirement he established a consulting business which offered his services to attorneys as an expert witness in matters of traffic and public right-of-way disputes. Mac's wife, Gail, was his crack assistant. She accompanied him on many site visits and thoroughly enjoyed being a part of this venture. He had many interesting cases over the years. Mac was a complicated man. The underlying traits that guided his life and actions were integrity and honesty. He was there for anyone who needed him and spent many hours assisting his children, grandchildren and friends. He was a Mr. Fix-It who did not believe in disposing of anything. Mac was an organized pack rat and would spend many hours looking for his stuff which he knew was there somewhere! Mac's step-daughter Suzy and her husband Dave nick-named him The Highlander. Sons, Mike and Jeff, and step-son, Gary, were in awe of his intelligence, ability and persistence. His grandchildren loved and respected him. His step-granddaughter, Jamie Lee, was a great comfort to her Grandpa Mac, especially in his last days. Football was very important to Mac. He played for the Lincoln High Mustangs and attended the 60th and 65th reunions of their 1943 championship team. He was also on the Cal Bears team during his time at UC Berkeley. He supported every sport that his children, step-children, grandchildren and step-grandchildren played. He was always there - cheering them on and usually wearing his shorts. Mac is survived by his wife of 40 years, Gail, his ex-wife, Betty, sons, Jeffrey (Mary) of Clayton, CA; Michael (Linda) of San Juan Bautista CA; step-son Gary (Cathy) of Carmel Valley CA; step-daughter Suzy (Dave) of Parowan, UT; granddaughter, Jessica McIntyre; and step-grandchildren, Christopher Powers, Jamie Lee Powers, Miranda Morgan and Chelsea Morgan and Miranda's daughters, Mya and Tyra. He was predeceased by his parents, Otto and Catherine McIntyre, sister Viola Thiele, and beloved grandson, Jonathan McIntyre.

Carlton D. Moser, Jr.

Florida Alpha (Florida State) '06

Carlton David "Dave" Moser passed away on July 17, 2015 at the age of 30, after a quick yet fierce battle with cancer. A lifelong passion of Dave's was to explore new people, new music, new cultures, but most importantly new flavors. An amazing chef and much like his spirit, Dave's talent was something that he loved to share, always striving to exceed the limits of perfection. After college, Dave channeled this passion into pursuing his dream of becoming a professional chef. He traveled around learning from a variety of mentors and touching countless people's lives, before he settled back home in Providenciales, Turks and Caicos Islands. In true

Dave fashion, he never wanted to be tied down, so he began freelancing as a private chef, eventually starting a business what was just beginning to take off. Taken from us too soon, Brother Moser leaves behind perhaps his best recipe: his two loving parents Laura and CD, his two brothers and best friends Scott and Bobby, and a multitude of family, friends, and loved ones scattered all over the globe. The world was robbed of a most amazing man, son, brother, and friend. Live ever, die never.

Jim was involved in various associations including the United States Professional Tennis Registry, Special Olympics, and the Park Shore Association Board of Directors in Naples, Florida. While on the Board of Directors, he championed the establishment of the "beautification award" for homes and condominiums within Park Shore. He wrote a tennis book entitled "Practice for a Change" and consulted on the development and improvement of numerous tennis facilities in California and Florida. Jim never approached a problem without offering a solution. After retiring in 1988, he started playing golf and achieved a handicap of 9. Previously married to the late Annette Marie Person, Jim remarried and is survived by his cherished wife of 32 years, Bette Smith Snowden. Jim and Bette, his "girl for all seasons", have enjoyed living in Naples, FL since 1992. FROM THE ARCHIVES

This fantastically jeweled “Newman Dye” style badge originally belonged to John Rule Hoover, Mississippi Alpha (Ole Miss 1884), and was a recent gift to the Fraternity from his granddaughter. Leaving college early, Brother Hoover returned to his hometown of Pickens, Mississippi, to help with the family business. The 1888 Shield has chapter updates listing him alternatively as managing his father’s store and “holding a clerkship down” at the same. The 1894 Shield lists him simply as a Merchant living in Pickens. The only other mention found of Brother Hoover is a 1939 listing of all initiated members which could be found in the March and May issues of the Shield. There he is still living in Pickens, though now listed as Planter.

At this point we would also like to respectfully ask and remind all brothers to include a mention in their Wills to have their Phi Psi Badge and other jewelry or mementos be returned and donated to Phi Kappa Psi Headquarters so that they may have a permanent and lasting home among brothers.
